

TEAMING AGREEMENT

THIS TEAMING AGREEMENT is entered into as of December 11, 2025, by and between Technostaff LLC d/b/a HonorVet Technologies ("HonorVet"), a company formed under the laws of Delaware and having its registered office at 271 Route 46W, Suite C 202, Fairfield, New Jersey 07004 and
 Rayomind Software Solutions LLC d/b/a Hire'in Solutions

having its principal office at 2621 Leigh Avenue, San Jose, CA 95124
("Teaming Partner").

WHEREAS, from time to time each party may identify opportunities ("Projects") with a specific end user customer (a "Customer") and may submit a joint proposal or response to such Customer's requirement ("Proposal"); and

WHEREAS, Teaming Partner has products, software and/or services that may meet the needs of the Customer as a part of the Proposal and/or Project;

WHEREAS, HonorVet or Customer, as applicable, may desire that Teaming Partner's Products, Software and/or Services to be included in the HonorVet Proposal;

WHEREAS, HonorVet and Teaming Partner agree that it could be to their mutual benefit to act as a team for the purpose of preparing and submitting a Proposal for such Project(s); and

WHEREAS, in the event the Proposal is accepted by the Customer and HonorVet is awarded the Project, HonorVet will enter in to a contract with the Customer ("Customer Contract"). In such case, HonorVet will be the prime ("Team Leader") for the Project and/ or Proposals with responsibilities that will include, but not be limited to, overall project management, and may seek to subcontract portions of the Project to other entities, including Teaming Partner.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and of the promises exchanged herein, HonorVet as the Team Leader and Teaming Partner agree as follows:

I. PURPOSE

- a. The Parties agree to collaborate for the purpose of identifying, pursuing, preparing, and submitting joint proposals ("Proposals") for staffing, technology, professional services, or other business opportunities ("Projects") issued by a Customer.
- b. If HonorVet is awarded a Customer Contract that includes, relies upon, or incorporates any portion of the scope, pricing, candidate submittals, technical information, or deliverables provided by the Teaming Partner, HonorVet shall offer the Teaming Partner a Subcontract Agreement for that applicable portion of the work. Such Subcontract Agreement shall be consistent with the scope and pricing set forth in Exhibit A, and shall be subject only to (a) Customer approval, (b) successful completion of required background, compliance, and due-diligence checks, and (c) mutually agreed final terms necessary to align with the Customer Contract.

II. EXCLUSIVITY & NON-CIRCUMVENTION

- a. For each Project that the Parties mutually agree to pursue and for which a Proposal is jointly prepared and submitted, the Teaming Partner shall collaborate exclusively with HonorVet with respect to that specific Project. During such period, the Teaming Partner shall not:
  - i. submit an independent bid or proposal to the Customer for the same Project;
  - ii. participate in or support any third party in submitting a bid or proposal for the same Project; or
  - iii. provide proposals, submittals, pricing, candidates, or technical information to the Customer or any competing bidder for use in connection with that specific Project.
- b. This exclusivity obligation applies only to the defined Project, and remains in effect until the earliest of:
  - i. Customer award of the Project;
  - ii. written confirmation from HonorVet that it will not submit or pursue the Proposal; or
  - iii. twelve (12) months after the Proposal submission date.
- c. The Teaming Partner shall not, directly or indirectly, circumvent HonorVet by engaging in any of the following activities with respect to a Customer for whom the Parties have jointly prepared a Proposal:
  - i. contacting, soliciting, negotiating, marketing, or contracting with the Customer for services that are the subject of the Proposal;
  - ii. attempting to secure work, revenue, or business opportunities arising from or related to the jointly pursued Project without HonorVet's written consent; or
  - iii. using HonorVet's confidential information, pricing, strategies, candidates, methodologies, or Proposal content to pursue business with the Customer independently or with third parties.
- d. Nothing in this Section prevents the Teaming Partner from conducting its existing and pre-established business with the Customer unrelated to the specific Project, provided that the Teaming Partner does not use any Confidential Information, Proposal content, or Project-related materials obtained through this Agreement.
- e. Any breach of this Section constitutes a material breach of the Agreement. Upon such breach, HonorVet may pursue:

- i. immediate termination of this Agreement;
  - ii. injunctive relief to prevent ongoing or future circumvention; and
  - iii. recovery of actual damages resulting from the breach, including lost profits, proposal preparation costs, and loss of expected subcontracting revenue.
- f. The Parties agree that such remedies are reasonable and necessary given the difficulty in quantifying damages resulting from circumvention or competing submissions.

III. PROPOSAL PREPARATION

- a. The parties shall cooperate to (1) prepare the Proposal for presentation to Customer in response to the Project requirement and (2) secure the contract with the Customer for the Project. The Teaming Partner agrees to collaborate with HonorVet exclusively in respect of the Project and not to submit any other tender or proposal relating to the Project either independently or in collaboration with any other party.
- b. Teaming Partner shall nominate appropriate and high-quality personnel for the purpose of supporting HonorVet in respect of the Proposal/ Project.
- c. Teaming Partner shall submit to HonorVet all appropriate technical and business data and information concerning its proposed portion of the Project/ Proposal as detailed in Exhibit A ("Exhibit"), including the scope of services and pricing data for use in preparation of the Proposal by a mutually agreed upon date and in an agreed format. Teaming Partner agrees that the details including the pricing data mentioned in the Exhibit will remain firm for the relevant Project. Teaming Partner will make the appropriate personnel available to provide reasonable assistance to HonorVet in the preparation of the Proposal as directed by HonorVet.
- d. HonorVet will prepare the Proposal, integrate the sub-proposal and/or all information provided by Teaming Partner in the Exhibit and submit the Proposal to Customer. Parties shall mutually identify the responsibility matrix for the Project. Teaming Partner shall provide complete support on all matters concerning the Teaming Partner's Exhibit prior to finalization of the Proposal to Customer. In the event Customer reasonably requires demonstrations or prototypes, Teaming Partner will provide HonorVet, at no charge, with the resources necessary to meet the Customer's request.
- e. Each party shall be solely responsible for its offerings in the Proposal, including the accuracy and adequacy of designs, interface and technical data, appropriate performance parameters, scope of work, support and all other matters proposed by it and for the completion and delivery times proposed by it in the Proposal.
- f. If, after submission of the Proposal, Customer requires changes to the Proposal, the parties shall co-ordinate and submit such revised response as per the requirement. Teaming Partner shall make available at HonorVet's request employees empowered to make commitments in respect of the matters to be discussed and any change to the

Proposal

- g. Once Teaming Partner is selected by HonorVet, Teaming Partner will not provide any proposals to or conduct negotiations for any portion of the Project directly with the Customer, except as expressly permitted by HonorVet.
- h. HonorVet will be responsible for any and all contract negotiations with the Customer. On request, Teaming Partner shall make its nominated representatives to be present at
- i. meetings (physical, electronic or otherwise) with the Customer which may concern Teaming Partner's sub-proposal and/or proposed portion of the Project. Notwithstanding the foregoing, HonorVet may require Teaming Partner to be responsible for contract negotiations concerning the Teaming Partner's sub-proposal and the portion of the Proposal to be performed by Teaming Partner if HonorVet elects or the Customer requests to have Teaming Partner contract directly with Customer.
- j. HonorVet agrees to consult with and obtain the concurrence of Teaming Partner prior to making any change in the Proposal related solely to Teaming Partner's proposed portion of the Proposal. Provided that Teaming Partner shall not be unreasonably withhold, or deny such concurrence.
- k. HonorVet will use commercially reasonable efforts after submission of the Proposal to the Customer to obtain the contract award, and Teaming Partner agrees to assist in such effort as may be reasonably requested and/or required by HonorVet.

IV. RELATIONSHIP OF THE PARTIES

- a. The parties shall act as independent contractors in the performance of their respective obligations under this Agreement. Neither party shall act as, or be deemed to be, the agent, partner, or joint venturer of the other for any purpose, and the employees of one party shall not be deemed employees of the other.
- b. The Teaming Partner represents and warrants that all personnel it proposes or assigns to support the Proposal or perform work under any resulting Subcontract Agreement shall: (i) possess the requisite expertise, training, experience, and professional qualifications necessary to perform their assigned tasks competently and timely; and (ii) have executed enforceable agreements requiring that (A) all work performed constitutes a "work made for hire" under applicable U.S. copyright law and is owned exclusively by the Teaming Partner, and (B) all rights in such work are assigned to the Teaming Partner.
- c. The Teaming Partner further represents and warrants that each individual proposed or assigned possesses the educational background, training, certifications, and skill sets as represented in the individual's résumé, curriculum vitae, or other materials submitted to HonorVet. If HonorVet determines, whether independently or based on notification from its Customer, that any such representation was inaccurate or misleading, the Teaming Partner shall be liable to HonorVet for liquidated damages in an amount equal to two (2) times the individual's annual salary, whether proposed or agreed.

- d. The Parties acknowledge that actual damages resulting from such misrepresentation are difficult to ascertain, including but not limited to loss of goodwill, potential loss of future work, and costs incurred to restore Customer confidence. Accordingly, the Parties agree that the foregoing liquidated damages represent a reasonable estimate of anticipated losses and shall not be construed as a penalty.
- e. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to authorize either HonorVet or the Teaming Partner to make commitments of any kind on behalf of the other without the other party's prior written consent, except as expressly agreed.
- f. The Teaming Partner agrees that during the term of this Agreement it shall not bid as a prime contractor, subcontractor, or joint venture partner with any third party for the same Project. The Teaming Partner's proposal included in Exhibit A, including pricing and scope of work, shall constitute an irrevocable offer and shall remain firm until the conclusion of the Project or until revised by mutual written agreement of the Parties.

V. PERFORMANCE

- a. In the event of contract award to HonorVet, HonorVet may notify Teaming Partner with its intention to subcontract, in part or whole, the scope of work as stated in Teaming Partner's Exhibit. Upon receipt of such notice the parties will immediately commence the negotiations of a subcontract agreement ("Subcontract Agreement"), encompassing the Teaming Partner's proposed products, software and/or services as stated in the Exhibit A for the Project and other mutually agreeable terms and conditions as required by the Customer Contract. Subcontract Agreement shall supersede this Agreement. Subject to applicable laws and regulations, the parties shall enter into the Subcontract Agreement for a term that coincides with the terms and conditions of the Customer Contract. The Subcontract Agreement shall be drafted in line with the Customer Contract executed by HonorVet with the Customer to ensure flow down of the terms and conditions agreed with the Customer. Subject to the requirements of the Customer Contract the Subcontract Agreement shall include provisions relating to warranty, indemnity, intellectual property rights, support, service levels, confidentiality, provision of materials, liability, governing law etc.
- b. The specific work to be performed and to be provided by Teaming Partner as agreed in the Exhibit shall be further defined in the Subcontract Agreement and/or in the relevant statements of works. Such statements of work shall be in line with the Subcontract Agreement as well as the Customer Contract between HonorVet and Customer. If required by the Customer, HonorVet may in its discretion, authorize Teaming Partner to begin work in accordance with a mutually agreed interim agreement, prior to execution of the Subcontract Agreement, subject to the terms hereof.

VI. SERVICE LEVEL REQUIREMENTS (SLAs)

- a) The Teaming Partner shall meet all defined performance standards to ensure timely, consistent, and high-quality delivery of services in support of the Proposal and any resulting Project.

- b) During the term of this Agreement, the Teaming Partner shall not reassign, remove, reallocate, or deploy to any third party any personnel proposed or assigned to support the Proposal or perform Services for HonorVet without HonorVet's prior written authorization.
- c) If the Teaming Partner or its assigned personnel fail to perform or cease providing Services for a period exceeding two (2) weeks, and such cessation occurs without providing the thirty (30) days' prior written notice required under this Agreement, the Teaming Partner shall be liable to HonorVet for liquidated damages in an amount equal to the total fees billed by the Teaming Partner for the Services during the three (3) months immediately preceding the first date of such failure.
- d) The Parties acknowledge that sudden cessation of Services may cause substantial operational and reputational harm to HonorVet, including loss of Customer goodwill, disruption of project continuity, and internal costs required to stabilize Customer relationships. The Parties therefore agree that the liquidated damages described above constitute a reasonable estimate of anticipated losses and shall not be construed as a penalty.
- e) The Teaming Partner shall adhere to HonorVet's staffing performance expectations, including but not limited to:
  - i. submission of qualified candidate profiles within twenty-four (24) to forty-eight (48) hours;
  - ii. timely provision of background checks, compliance documentation, and all required onboarding materials; and
  - iii. providing a seven (7)-day replacement guarantee for any candidate who withdraws or fails to perform.
- f) The Teaming Partner shall maintain full compliance with all applicable federal, state, and local labor and employment laws; HIPAA obligations when handling protected health information; OSHA requirements applicable to healthcare staffing activities; and all HonorVet policies relating to ethics, data privacy, confidentiality, and Code of Conduct obligations.
- g) The Teaming Partner shall ensure that all personnel, including subcontractors or consultants assigned under this Agreement, possess valid authorization to work in the United States and have completed all employment-eligibility documentation required by applicable immigration laws, including a properly completed Form I-9 and any supporting identification. The Teaming Partner shall also utilize the E-Verify system to confirm employment eligibility for all assigned personnel prior to commencement of Services.

All I-9 forms, E-Verify confirmations, and supporting documents shall be submitted to HonorVet prior to deployment and shall remain available for inspection throughout the assignment. HonorVet may withhold payment for any personnel until all required documentation has been submitted and verified.

HonorVet reserves the right to audit the Teaming Partner's employment-eligibility documentation prior to the issuance of the first paycheck and again prior to releasing any pending payments. The Teaming Partner shall fully cooperate with such audits.

This requirement constitutes a flow-down obligation of HonorVet's Customer(s). Failure to comply shall be deemed a material breach and may result in termination for cause, withholding of payments, and the Teaming Partner's obligation to indemnify HonorVet for any resulting penalties, losses, or liabilities.

- h) To ensure ongoing alignment with performance expectations, HonorVet may conduct quarterly performance reviews to evaluate service quality, responsiveness, compliance adherence, and operational effectiveness. The Teaming Partner shall cooperate fully with such reviews and implement corrective actions as reasonably requested by HonorVet to maintain required service levels and overall project success.

VII. PAYMENT TERMS

- a. Commission/ compensation structure is detailed in Exhibit A.
- b. HonorVet shall disburse payment within ten (10) days of receiving payment from customer.
- c. Adjustments for Charge back, timesheet corrections, VMS disputes, or customer non-payment shall apply
- d. Partner will not receive commissions on:
  - i. Unauthorized placements
  - ii. Direct hires by customer without HonorVet involvement.

VIII. COSTS

- a. Any and all costs or expenses of either HonorVet or Teaming Partner arising out of this Agreement or its implementation shall be borne by the respective parties separately and individually.
- b. Neither party shall be liable or obligated to the other for any such cost, expense, or liability, except to the extent that it agrees to be responsible for such cost, expense, or liability pursuant to the Subcontract Agreement that may be executed by the parties for the Project.

IX. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- a. "Confidential Information" means any non-public, proprietary, technical, financial, operational, business, staffing, or customer-related information disclosed by one Party ("Disclosing Party") to the other Party ("Receiving Party") in connection with this Agreement, whether disclosed verbally, in writing, electronically, or through access to systems or documents.

Customer information ("Customer Information") shall be treated as Confidential Information regardless of labeling.

- b. Confidential Information disclosed orally shall be considered confidential regardless of whether later reduced to writing, if the nature of the information reasonably indicates it is confidential.
- c. The Receiving Party shall:
  - i. use the Confidential Information solely for preparing the Proposal or performing its obligations under this Agreement;
  - ii. protect the Confidential Information using at least the same degree of care it uses to protect its own confidential information, but no less than reasonable care;
  - iii. limit disclosure to employees, agents, or subcontractors who have a legitimate need to know and who are bound by confidentiality obligations; and
  - iv. return or destroy all Confidential Information upon written request or upon termination of this Agreement, subject to any legal retention obligations.
- d. Customer Information provided to either Party:
  - i. shall be treated as Confidential Information;
  - ii. may only be used for preparing Proposals or performing the applicable Project; and
  - iii. may not be disclosed without Customer authorization unless legally required

If the Customer imposes stricter confidentiality requirements, those requirements shall govern.
- e. Confidential Information may be disclosed only to the extent required:
  - i. by subpoena, court order, or other valid legal process, provided the Receiving Party gives the Disclosing Party prompt written notice;
  - ii. to enforce the rights of a Party under this Agreement; or
  - iii. with the Disclosing Party's written consent.
- f. Confidential Information does not include information that the Receiving Party can conclusively demonstrate through written documentation:
  - i. was already known to the Receiving Party without restriction before disclosure;
  - ii. becomes publicly available through no wrongful act of the Receiving Party;

- iii. is received lawfully from a third party without confidentiality obligations; or
  - iv. was independently developed by the Receiving Party without use of or reference to the Confidential Information.
- g. Nothing in this Agreement grants the Receiving Party any license, title, or ownership rights to the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information, except as expressly stated.
- h. These confidentiality obligations shall survive:
- i. termination or expiration of this Agreement for three (3) years; and
  - ii. indefinitely with respect to Customer Information or any information required to remain confidential under the Customer Contract.
- i. Any unauthorized use or disclosure of Confidential Information constitutes a material breach. The Disclosing Party is entitled to:
- i. injunctive relief;
  - ii. recovery of actual damages; and
  - iii. any other remedies available under law or equity.

X. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

Any inventions conceived pursuant to this Agreement shall remain the property of the originating party. In the event of joint inventions, the parties shall engage in good faith negotiations to establish their respective rights. Failing agreement, each party shall have equal ownership and rights in such joint inventions, without further obligation or accounting to the other party. It is understood and agreed that Teaming Partner may be required to and shall grant limited licenses or other rights to HonorVet to Teaming Partner's Intellectual Property Rights in accordance with the Customer Contract.

XI. TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT

This Agreement shall cease to have effect upon the happening of one of the following events, whichever occurs first:

- a. Twenty-Four (24) months elapse from the Effective Date of this Agreement; provided, however, this Agreement will be extended for twelve (12) additional months if a Proposal has been submitted and Customer has not provided written notice as to contract award within the initial 24-month period;
- b. Customer notifies HonorVet that it has awarded a contract for the Project to an entity other than HonorVet;

- c. Customer notifies its disapproval of the Teaming Partner;
- d. HonorVet notifies the Teaming Partner that it no longer intends to submit the Proposal for the Project;
- e. HonorVet and Teaming Partner execute a Subcontract Agreement for all or portions of the Project including all relevant clauses of this Agreement;
- f. As a result of Customer materially modifying the requirements of the Project both parties agree to terminate this Agreement;
- g. Either party becomes insolvent or bankrupt, files for reorganization under the bankruptcy laws, or makes an assignment for the benefit of its creditors;
- h. Either party commits a material breach of this Agreement and such breach remains unremedied thirty (30) days after the breaching party receives notice of the breach;
- i. HonorVet's written notice for termination with or without cause.

XII. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- a. Teaming Partner will indemnify HonorVet against any and all damages and claims made by Customer against HonorVet as a result of (i) any fraudulent acts or misrepresentations of Teaming Partner; and/or (ii) Teaming Partner's failure to meet its obligations agreed in the Exhibit or in its proposal to HonorVet.
- b. Except for a breach of Article 2.3 and Article 5 (Confidential Information) and for violation of the other party's intellectual property rights, neither party will be liable to the other for any consequential, indirect or special damages arising out of or related to this Agreement.

XIII. GENERAL

- a. Except to its affiliates, this Agreement may not be assigned or otherwise transferred by either Party, in whole or in part, without the express prior written consent of the other Party. No provision of this Agreement may be waived except in a writing signed by the Party to be charged, nor may this Agreement be amended except by a written instrument executed by both Parties.
- b. This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, proposals, negotiations, and communications, whether oral or written. This Agreement may not be waived, modified, or amended except by a written agreement executed by HonorVet and the Teaming Partner.

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey, without regard to its conflict-of-laws principles. ANY CONTROVERSY OR CLAIM ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN HONORVET AND THE TEAMING PARTNER SHALL BE FULLY AND FINALLY RESOLVED BY BINDING ARBITRATION ADMINISTERED BY THE AMERICAN ARBITRATION ASSOCIATION IN ACCORDANCE WITH ITS COMMERCIAL ARBITRATION RULES. JUDGMENT ON THE ARBITRATION AWARD MAY BE ENTERED IN ANY COURT HAVING JURISDICTION THEREOF. ARBITRATION UNDER THIS PARAGRAPH SHALL BE TO THE EXCLUSION OF ANY COURT OR JUDICIAL FORUM, AND THE TEAMING PARTNER UNDERSTANDS AND AGREES THAT BY ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT IT WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO INITIATE A LAWSUIT AGAINST HONORVET OR TO HAVE DISPUTES RESOLVED BY A JURY.

- c. The Teaming Partner shall maintain complete and accurate books and records relating to all services performed, activities undertaken, personnel assigned, hours worked, compensation paid, tax remittances, and any documentation relevant to compliance with this Agreement. Such records shall be sufficient to substantiate all submissions, representations, and obligations under this Agreement.

The Teaming Partner shall retain all such records for a minimum of seven (7) years following expiration or termination of this Agreement and shall make them available to HonorVet upon reasonable request.

- d. HonorVet shall have the right, at the Teaming Partner's expense, to audit the Teaming Partner's operations, internal controls, billing practices, payroll records, subcontractor compliance, personnel files, tax filings, onboarding documentation, and any other records necessary to verify compliance with this Agreement.

Audits may be conducted by HonorVet or by a third-party auditor bound by confidentiality obligations. The Teaming Partner shall provide full cooperation, reasonable access, and timely responses to all audit-related requests.

- e. Neither Party shall be liable for delays or failure in performance due to causes beyond its control.
- f. Any change or appointment to this Agreement or Exhibits thereof must be made in writing and signed by the approved representative of each party.
- g. The foregoing represents the complete understanding and agreement between the parties and supersedes any prior oral or written agreements, proposals, commitments, understandings, or communications with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement.
- h. Neither party will use the other's name in any advertising, press release, or publicity of this Agreement, the Project, the name or logo of the other Party without the other Party's prior written consent.
- i. Any notices, requests, consents and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be effective either when delivered personally to the party for whom intended, or five (5) days following deposit of the same into the mail (certified mail, return receipt requested, or first class postage prepaid), addressed to such party at the address set forth
